LOCATION

Located on the A39 Atlantic Highway, the property has a road frontage on this popular tourist route giving it the opportunity for chance / passing trade. Bude lies 10 miles to the South, Bideford 12 miles to the East and the village of Hartland 4 miles to the North. The direct area surrounding the property is known as Bursdon Moor.

THE PROPERTY AND CONSTRUCTION

Being a former 16th century coaching Inn, the extensive property has retained many period features including exposed stone walling, open fireplaces and beamed ceilings. The main building is of two storey construction with rendered elevations under a pitched slate roof, with a latter single story extension, with pitched slate roof, providing further trading area by way of a function suite, which also has a removable skittle alley. Public areas include main bar, lounge / games bar, restaurant, overflow restaurant and carvery / function suite for circa 60. Much attention has been paid to the first floor letting accommodation with the premises benefiting from 9 letting bedrooms, all being en-suite. Also located on the first floor is the owners' apartment which consists of 2 / 3 bedrooms (one is currently used as an office), four piece bathroom, toilet and a lounge with extensive countryside views. Adjoining the main building, and located in the 2 acres of ground is a gymnasium and hot tub for residents and gym members, beer garden, tarmac car parking and two touring / camping fields.

THE PROPOSAL
